CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR SUCCESSFUL SEARCH!

It has been a real pleasure partnering with you.

One of the key services we provide our clients at this stage of our SMART Search System is a thorough compensation analysis and, where possible or logical, an offer recommendation.

Throughout the search process, Ropella has had extensive conversations regarding all factors of Jane's compensation and it is now appropriate for us to share the complete details of these discussions with you. We provide this analysis with the belief that the information below should be quite helpful as your company prepares a formal offer for Jane.

But first a disclaimer: This is not a mandate, but rather a position paper intended to start a dialogue about the offer and acceptance strategy. We understand that compensation discussions like these can sometimes get emotional and/or stressful for both sides (our client and the candidate - as well as their families, friends, and influencers). Please be aware that as your trusted partner, our loyalties are always 100% with you, our client.

Offer Acceptance Strategy	Salary Scenarios	Offer Recommendation Details
A. Salary that Ropella can accept on Jane's behalf	$205,000	Your Company offers a base of $205,000 as well as a $60,000 sign-on bonus. We are highly confident that a package at this level would be accepted by Jane and we can go ahead and set a start date.
B. Salary that could still be considered viable	$195,000	Your company offers a salary of $195,000 as well as a $60,000 sign-on bonus. A package at this level could still be attractive to Jane, but it's more of a roll of the dice and she will want time to compare it to her current package and any counter offers.
C. Salary that Jane will likely walk away from	$185,000	Your company offers an absolute minimum salary of $185,000 as well as a $60,000 sign-on bonus. A package at this level will likely fail and result in Jane staying with her current employer, or continuing to look at other opportunities.

Note: These recommendations are based on detailed conversations we've just had with Jane, in which we tested a variety of hypothetical offer scenarios based on comparing all compensation details. Therefore, our advice would be to come in with an offer at Option A, or Option B at a minimum. Ultimately, we will follow any final decisions you make and you can count on us to actively support you as we move forward together with the delivery and acceptance of your offer.

Offer Delivery Best Practices

Open Communication: Please set aside some time to get on the phone with us ASAP. Let's strategize together on next steps and confirm how we're going to present the offer in order to obtain a prompt acceptance.

Creative Solutions: If needed, consider creativity in the form of offer incentives. If scenario A is not possible, what can we do to build a bridge? For example, an increased sign-on bonus, an increased car allowance or upgraded car, a salary increase during a 6-month review, a guaranteed year one bonus, etc.

Sense of Urgency: Let's move fast. In today's competitive talent market, delays create a greater risk of candidates receiving competing offers, a counter-offer from their current employer, and/or second thoughts (often caused by the candidate's influencers).

Written Offer: We need to make sure we get a written offer extended to the candidate as fast as possible. Be sure to include all relevant benefit details/costs and relocation package information with the offer.

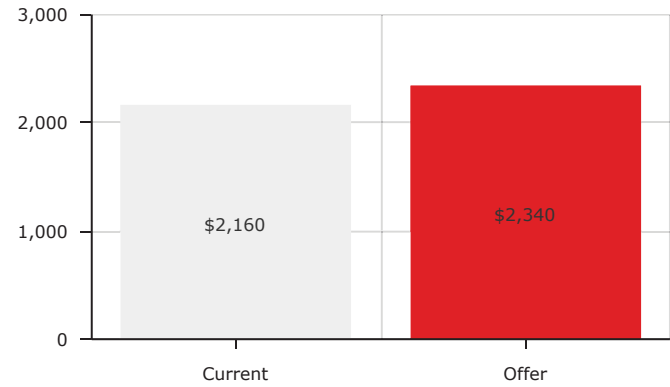

Warm Welcome: Upon offer acceptance, it's important to promptly have a top executive and/or the hiring manager reach out to say congratulations and to welcome Jane aboard.

Important Topics To Be Aware Of

- 🚩 Jane is expecting her annual raise of 4.5%. Her salary increase to $182,875 will need to be considered when extending an offer.
- 🚩 Should she leave current employer prior to the end of February, she will be forfeiting her earned bonus of $57,750. We will need to strongly consider a sign-on bonus to offset this loss, if we plan to have Jane join your company before March.
- 🚩 Jane's vacation time increases to 4 weeks. We should strongly consider offering 4 weeks' vacation to match.
